

ACFE Anti-Fraud Education Partnership

Growing professionals through fraud-related education

Start a Fraud Examination Course

WHAT IS THE ACFE ANTI-FRAUD EDUCATION PARTNERSHIP?

The Anti-Fraud Education Partnership was created by Dr. Joseph T. Wells, CFE, CPA, and chairman of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE), due to the lack of anti-fraud training in higher education.

Since its inception in 2002, the ACFE has provided free resources including a sample syllabus, case studies and videos, to assist in adequately preparing students in the basic elements of fraud prevention, detection and examination. The discipline of fraud examination draws knowledge from accounting, law, criminology and fraud investigation principles. Therefore, students enrolled in accounting, finance, business administration or criminal justice should have at least minimal training in this area.

The 2018 Report to the Nations on Occupational Fraud and Abuse states, “Among the various kinds of fraud that organizations might be faced with, occupational fraud is likely the largest and most prevalent threat.” That threat is the epitome of why your university should join this free partnership.

22%

OF CASES CAUSED LOSSES OF AT LEAST

$1 MILLION+

“Having access to the resources is a tremendous help to gain knowledge and understanding into a fraudster’s mind.”

— Dalhou Johnson
Student

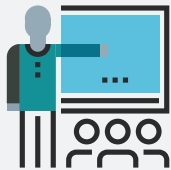

Benefits

To the University

There are no fees and limited requirements. Participation provides recognition on ACFE.com and use of the Anti-Fraud Education Partnership logo for promotional materials.

Visit ACFE.com/higher-ed

To the Educator

You receive free resources and assistance finding guest lecturers to enhance your fraud examination course.

New partners receive a free registration to Principles of Fraud Examination and joining as an educator member provides steeper discounts to ACFE events.

Visit ACFE.com/Educator-Membership

To the Student

Students will gain the marketable skills and knowledge needed to become leaders in the global fight against fraud.

Join Now

Follow other universities around the world that have become key providers of anti-fraud examination knowledge and training through this unique partnership, including:

- Carlow University
- Cornell University
- Florida Atlantic University
- Sheffield Hallam University, UK
- Stevenson University
- Texas A&M University
- University of Illinois
- West Virginia University

Start preparing your students to become the business leaders of tomorrow by teaching a fraud examination course.

Visit ACFE.com/higher-ed

Additional Benefits to Students

The ACFE offers qualified students a discounted membership providing access to members-only resources. In addition, student members interested in pursuing the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential may be eligible to purchase the Student Package (CFE Exam Prep Course and CFE Exam).

Visit ACFE.com/student-benefits

Contact HigherEd@ACFE.com for more information about these student benefits.

“ I would suggest that students who are interested in an anti-fraud profession search out every opportunity they can to take classes in fraud examination. ”

— Amanda Powell
Student

ACFE.com/higher-ed

WHAT IS THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED FRAUD EXAMINERS?

The ACFE, founded in 1988, is the world's largest anti-fraud organization and premier provider of anti-fraud training and education.

It has long recognized the importance of beginning anti-fraud education with students at the university level.

“ What we found was that there was a lot of demand for the course, and students told us that what they learned was very beneficial no matter what career they go into. Having these skills makes them better and more discriminating shareholders, auditors, consultants, tax advisors or fraud examiners. ”

— W. Steve Albrecht, PH.D., CFE, CIA, CPA
Professor, Marriott School of Management, Brigham Young University

CONTACT US:

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners
716 West Ave.
Austin, Texas 78701

(800) 245-3321

HigherEd@ACFE.com

ACFE.com

HigherEd@ACFE.com

ACFE[®]

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

