

2010-2011 Ritchie-Jennings Memorial Scholarship Application

Please accept my application for one of 30 academic scholarships in the amount of $1,000 for the 2010-2011 academic year to be awarded by the ACFE Foundation. I understand the scholarship and a one-year Student Associate membership in the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners will be awarded by the ACFE Foundation on the basis of overall academic achievement, letters of recommendation and an original essay on why I should receive a scholarship and how fraud awareness will affect my professional career development. I am a full-time undergraduate taking at least 9 semester hours, or graduate student taking at least 6 semester hours, per term at an accredited four-year college or university (or equivalent) with a declared major or minor in accounting, business administration, finance or criminal justice (Junior college, community college and high school students — including graduating seniors — are not eligible to apply).

Scholarship Checklist

- Official transcript(s) showing all completed courses from any college or university attended. If spring 2010 grades are not available in time to make the deadline, grades through fall 2009 and proof of spring 2010 enrollment is provided. The deadline for having the completed application packet to the ACFE Foundation is January 15, 2010.
- Three letters of recommendation. I understand that one of the three must be from a Certified Fraud Examiner or a local Association chapter representative (required for U.S. and Canadian citizens only). The remaining letters may be from faculty members, advisors, or employment supervisors.
- A 250- to 500-word essay explaining why I deserve the award, and how fraud awareness will affect my professional development.

I hereby certify that all of the information on this application and on my enclosures is true and correct.
