The mission of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners is to reduce the incidence of fraud and white-collar crime, and to assist the membership in its detection and deterrence. To accomplish our mission, the ACFE:

- Provides bona fide qualifications for Certified Fraud Examiners through administration of the CFE Exam
- Sets high standards for admission, including demonstrated competence through mandatory Continuing Professional Education
- Requires Certified Fraud Examiners to adhere to a strict code of professional conduct and ethics
- Serves as the international representative for Certified Fraud Examiners to business, government and academic institutions
- Provides leadership to inspire public confidence in the integrity, objectivity and professionalism of Certified Fraud Examiners
The ACFE brand is more than using correct logos, fonts and colors. It is a cohesive identity that represents our commitment to the anti-fraud profession and our members. A strong and consistent brand image gives those we serve confidence in our professionalism and the ability to provide the best service and value possible.

The ACFE brand is used by ACFE employees as well as members across the globe. Thanks to the efforts of the ACFE staff and thousands of dedicated anti-fraud professionals, the ACFE brand is associated with credibility, integrity and professionalism. Following these guidelines will help ensure that the ACFE continues to have these positive associations and that members get the most value from their membership.

Please feel free to engage in the conversation about our brand. Our identity reaches across several platforms - including social media, magazines, letters, signs, books and beyond. Our brand is ever-evolving, and everyone is invited to participate in our continuing brand development.

"A brand is not a product or a feeling. It’s the sum of all the experiences you have with a company.”
— AMIR KASSAEI
Communicating the ACFE Brand

This guidebook was designed to help you promote yourself and your affiliation with the ACFE. Inside, you will find information on which logos to use, technical guidelines for how to use them, and pointers to templates and examples.

Please note: it is important for all ACFE members to adhere to these guidelines. Thanks to the efforts of thousands of dedicated anti-fraud professionals, the ACFE brand is associated with credibility, integrity and professionalism. Following these guidelines will help ensure that the ACFE continues to have these positive associations and that you get the most value from your ACFE membership.

We ask that you follow these standards precisely. If you have any questions about these brand standards or how a logo should be used in a particular application, contact us and we will be happy to assist you.

ACFE Logo Rules for Members in the U.S. and Canada
The ACFE Member Logo

Promote ACFE membership by using the ACFE Member Logo. Displaying the ACFE Member Logo communicates dedication to the ACFE’s Code of Ethics and global fight against fraud. Current ACFE members who are in good standing can download the ACFE Member Logo by logging into their ACFE account or by clicking the links on page 8 in this document.

ACFE members can use the ACFE Member Logo in a variety of ways:

- On business cards or letterheads
- Displayed within an email signature
- Placed on a company bio page or personal website
- On Facebook, LinkedIn or Twitter

ACFE members agree to the following usage terms and conditions:

- The ACFE Member Logo may only be used by members in good standing. Suspended or expired members are not allowed to use the ACFE Member Logo. To check your membership status, please log in to your ACFE account on our website.
- The ACFE Member Logo may be used by a school, company or organization only when they employ at least one ACFE member in good standing on a full-time basis. The logo may be used on websites, signage, stationery, business cards, letterheads, brochures and other promotional or display materials.
- When displaying the ACFE Member Logo on a website, the graphic should link to the ACFE home page at ACFE.com. You may not use it to link to other pages on your website or any other websites.
- The ACFE Member Logo may not be used to indicate any kind of endorsement by the ACFE; or suggest that ACFE is the source of the goods or services that you offer; or to imply any kind of relationship with the ACFE aside from those expressly permitted.
- The ACFE Member Logo may not be used on documents such as contracts, certificates, reports, client communications or official disclosure documents provided to a potential or actual client or any purchasers of services or products.
- The ACFE Member Logo may not be used in connection with any disparaging statements about the ACFE or its products, or statements that otherwise reflect poorly on the ACFE.
The ACFE logo takes two important elements from the ACFE seal: the torch and open book. The torch lights the way to an open book, which represents the body of knowledge in fraud detection and deterrence.

APPLICATION
Use this logo whenever possible. It should be used in applications like business cards, apparel, websites and social media.
The ACFE logo is a valuable asset that must always appear in an uncluttered space, free of any text, graphic elements, shapes and strong background patterns.

The minimum clear space surrounding the logo must always be at least 1/4".
On rare occasions, you may need one-color logos. These are approved variations of the ACFE logo.
Our logo is proprietary. It has been thoughtfully created. Do not change or distort the logo in any way. Never recreate any elements, and always use approved artwork. Improper usage or editing proportions diminish the brand’s recognition and credibility. Consistency and legibility is key.

Do not modify, misinterpret or mistreat the logo.

A. Do not rotate the logo.
B. Do not place the full color logo on a busy background.
C. Do not place the logo on a background with insufficient contrast.
D. Do not condense the logo.
E. Do not use unapproved colors.
F. Do not remove the ACFE name line.
G. Do not remove the torch.
H. Do not remove the ® or ™

The ACFE Seal for Certified Fraud Examiners
The CFE Seal for Certified Fraud Examiners

The CFE Seal was designed to represent those professionals who have earned the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential.

Heraldry of the CFE Seal

The Seal of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners reflects Aristotle’s axiom. With knowledge, fraud and white-collar crime can be reduced. The Seal demonstrates the CFE’s commitment through its centerpiece: the torch and the flame.

The torch lights the way to an open book, which represents the body of knowledge in fraud detection and deterrence. The deep ruby color of the flame is symbolic of truth and honor — the cornerstone of the Certified Fraud Examiner’s ethical standards.

Usage of the CFE Seal by ACFE Members

Only Certified Fraud Examiners in good standing are permitted to use the CFE Seal. Associate Members are not permitted to use the CFE Seal.

CFEs should use the CFE Seal provided on the ACFE website under “Member Resources.” CFEs can download the CFE Seal by logging in to the website or by clicking the links on page 20 in this document.

Trademark Guidelines
ACFE Trademark Usage Guidelines

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners ("ACFE") has exclusive rights to its name, trademarks and logos and prohibits their unauthorized use. The ACFE’s trademarks include: “ACFE,” “CFE,” “Certified Fraud Examiner,” the ACFE Seal and the ACFE Logo.

The ACFE may terminate your membership or take legal action if it finds that you have violated any of the Trademark Usage Requirements or Brand Guidelines. In addition, The ACFE may terminate your right to use any ACFE trademark if:

- The ACFE finds that you have violated any of the Usage Requirements; or
- The ACFE determines that you are using an ACFE trademark without authorization.

Your right to use any ACFE trademark automatically terminates when your ACFE membership terminates or expires. You agree to cooperate with the ACFE if it becomes necessary for the ACFE to take any action to enforce any of its rights in any of the Licensed Trademarks.

Trademark Usage Requirements

- You acknowledge in whole or in part that the ACFE is the sole owner of the trademarks and promise that you will not interfere with the trademark rights of the ACFE, including challenging the ACFE’s use of, registration of, or application to register such trademarks, alone or in combination with other words, anywhere in the world, and that you will not harm, misuse, or bring into disrepute any ACFE trademark. The goodwill derived from using any part of any ACFE trademark exclusively inures to the benefit of and belongs to ACFE.
- You may not use ACFE trademarks in any way that suggests that the ACFE is the source of the goods or services that you offer or create the impression, directly or indirectly, that The ACFE sponsors or endorses any product or service without the ACFE’s prior written consent.
- To avoid misleading the public, do not use ACFE trademarks as part of your company, product, service name or adjacent to a business name.
- ACFE trademarks must not appear more prominently than your company title and logo. Do not use ACFE trademarks as backgrounds or watermarks.
- You may not use any ACFE Trademark as any part of an Internet domain name, website name, letterhead, email address, or metatag.
- You may not use any name, logo, or symbol that is confusingly similar to an ACFE Trademark.
- You use of the ACFE trademarks must not reflect unfavorably on the ACFE and its products or services.
Thank You
