JUSTIN PAPERNY Convicted Fraudster United States

Justin Paperny is a former investment executive who now uses his experiences to educate others on the perils associated with white-collar crime. He is the author of Lessons From Prison and Ethics in Motion. Justin has been a keynote speaker to academic and business audiences across the nation. His clients include, The FBI Academy, New York University, KPMG, Grant Thornton, Wells Fargo, Morgan Stanley, and the University of Southern California. ABC News, Fox News, NBC News, Forbes, and Radio America have featured his story and presentations, amongst others.

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Justin began building his career at such storied firms as Merrill Lynch, Bear Stearns, and UBS. Justin managed more than $150 million in investor assets as a top-earning stockbroker, but personal pressures clouded his judgment. That ethical lapse ensnared him in a fraud. He pleaded guilty to violating securities laws and served an 18-month sentence at Taft Federal Prison Camp.

Justin provides audiences with insight into the motivations, actions, and consequences of white-collar crime. Rather than speaking theoretically, he draws upon personal experiences to narrate with honesty and eloquence how an inattention to values-based decision-making can lead an individual into debacles that may include imprisonment.
