CURRENT TOPICS PANEL: EVERYBODY’S PROBLEM—
THE GLOBAL CHALLENGES OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

Bribery and corruption are global problems hindering a company’s ability to do legitimate business in many countries. The recent enactment of the United Kingdom’s Bribery Act as well as the United States’s Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) provides valuable guidelines for corporations looking to stay on the right side of the law. Additionally efforts by the OECD, which included many Asia-Pacific countries, provide further guidelines for corporate behaviour. But is all this legislation enough? Hear a panel of experts discuss the positive and negative aspects of dealing with this corporate plague in the real world.
